A variance provides for a modification of a specific zoning requirement adopted by the City when, due to unique site characteristics, the strict application of the zoning regulation would create an undue hardship and deny reasonable use of the subject property. Variances can only be granted if approval would not otherwise impair achievement of the standards, would not impose additional burden upon adjoining landowners, or otherwise have detrimental effect on properties in the area, or the community at large.

Checklist: A request is made by submitting the following:

Narrative describing the following:

- a. The special conditions and circumstances that exist which are peculiar to the land, are not applicable to other lands, structures or buildings in the same district;
 - b. How a literal interpretation of the provisions of this ordinance would deprive the applicant of rights commonly enjoyed by other properties in the same district under the terms of this Ordinance;
 - c. That special conditions and circumstances do not result from actions of the applicant; and
 - d. That the granting of the variance requested will not confer on the applicant any special privilege that is denied by this title to other lands, structures or buildings within the same district.

Said list shall be accompanied by a date stamped tax parcel map prepared by Kootenai County. Note: list must be current within 60 days of issuing notice to public agencies.
