- b. Hayden History Book Volume II – Family Progress Update from October 10 to November 8, 2018

This came from Thad Piller – Commissioner Bennett did his parents history and he told her about the following incident. Since the story was shared in 2014, she has discussed the matter a dozen times and has tried to find out who the dead person was for many years. The last time Commissioner Bennett saw Thad was in February of 2018, just before he passed away. He was living in Ola, Idaho at the time and she had flown down to see him (and discussed this situation again).

He advised her that he and a couple of his friends were heading home after a day of fishing at Honeysuckle Beach. He thought one of his friends was the Cuff boy. The other boy was Bruce Bonallo. As they approached the gravel pit which was on Honeysuckle Avenue (across from Richard's home) they saw a car, dark in color, the
