

A former Plano elementary school teacher convicted of sexual misconduct with a student now faces new charges involving a second student. 5B

ADVERTISEMENT

EVERY HOME NEEDS A CHAMPION

469-804-6331

2951 NORTHERN CROSS BLVD., FT. WORTH

20% OFF BRAND NEW WINDOWS

*Minimum purchase required. See store for details. Expires 9-30-15 OFFER CODE: 33616

DALLAS COWBOYS

Ford name to be on team's HQ

Frisco and its school district tout benefits of agreement on indoor practice facility

By VALERIE WIGGLESWORTH
Staff Writer
vwigglesworth@dallasnews.com

FRISCO — Now we know what to call the Dallas Cowboys' new headquarters and indoor practice facility: The Ford Center at The Star.

A naming rights agreement announced Friday builds on a rela-

Vernon Bryant/Staff Photographer

Ford regional manager Greg Wood (center) announced the deal with the Cowboys' Stephen Jones (left) and Frisco Mayor Maher Maso.

tionship the team and Ford Motor Co. have had for more than two decades. Ford has long been the "official vehicle of the Dallas Cowboys."

Full terms of the deal were not disclosed. According to the original 2013 agreement with the Cowboys, Frisco will receive 3 percent of any

See FORD Page 6B

AMERICAN AIRLINES CENTER

17,000 snap up Trump tickets

Full arena expected Monday for candidate who's struck a nerve in fans, protesters

By GROMER JEFFERS JR.
Political Writer
gjeffers@dallasnews.com

Anyone still doubt Donald Trump's appeal?

There are no tickets left for the Republican presidential front-runner's rally Monday evening at American Airlines Center. That means thousands of North Texans are planning to jam into the place to hear Trump.

The center can hold about 20,000 people, and late last week, nearly 17,000 reservations had been made.

Dallas County Republican Party chairman Wade Emmert said the rally will be a must-see for many people, regardless of political affiliation.

"He has struck a nerve with people tired of the Washington political

See 'DUMP' Page 5B

Wylie honors heroes' sacrifices

Louis DeLuca/Staff Photographer

Wylie firefighter Robert Nishiyama stood at attention during the dedication Friday for the "Heroes of Wylie" bronze sculpture, created by Arizona artist Sid Henderson. The unveiling and a 9/11 remembrance were held at the city's Public Safety Building. (Additional photo, 3B)

JAMES RAGLAND
jragland@dallasnews.com
dallasnews.com/thescoopblog

It's time for DISD to hit a homer

In the immortal words of Yogi Berra, "It's like déjà vu all over again."

And frankly, since the Dallas Independent School District has blown through nine superintendents over the past 25 years, the sports reference is apropos.

We've had enough to field a baseball team.

Well, to be fair, you'd have to count Michael Hinojosa twice — which, by the way, is exactly what the school board is poised to do.

Trustees are ready to quit scouting for a Mike Miles replacement and, instead, re-sign Hinojosa, who left in 2011 after a six-year run.

He's been standing in as a relief pitcher since June, after Miles abruptly bowed out. But on Tuesday, Hinojosa is set to be named a permanent starter again — or, in the legalistic lingo of the district, the "lone finalist" for the job.

"Now that I've been through it once," Hinojosa told me, "I've got a mulligan."

If you're wondering what a Second Coming of Michael Hinojosa will look like, he has begun tipping his hand.

He's tinkering with the team that Miles put in place by firing embattled human resources executive Tonya Sadler Grayson; bringing back a once-popular high school principal, Anthony Tovar, whom Miles ousted; and streamlining the School Leadership Department.

Hinojosa also has signed up a new chief of staff, Cynthia Wilson, a veter-

See HINOJOSA Page 9B

ON THE FRONT PAGE
Mayor: Trinity park will move forward

Dallas Mayor Mike Rawlings said Friday that a nonprofit will fund a $1 million comprehensive plan for a park in the Trinity River corridor.

Also: Former Gov. Rick Perry has suspended his presidential campaign.

INSIDE
Mercedes Olivera	5
Obituaries	8-9
Weather	10

COLLIN COUNTY

Day care hired man accused of abuse

Director says child sex inquiry didn't come up in check with school district

By JULIETA CHIQUILLO
Staff Writer
jchiquillo@dallasnews.com

A former education aide in Princeton ISD charged this week with sexually assaulting a student in April was hired in August to be a teacher at a Frisco day care and preschool.

Joshua Dwane Rojas no longer works for the Kids 'R' Kids location on Main Street in Frisco, according to the day care. Rojas had been hired before he was charged with aggravated sexual assault of a child and indecency with a child/sexual contact.

The center's director said Friday that there was no indication of wrongdoing during his time working there.

Rojas is accused of abusing a 4-year-old girl, officials have said.

Rojas couldn't be reached for

See DAY CARE Page 7B

JOSHUA DWANE ROJAS is charged.

If there's any delay, it's you we pay!

Did you know even a small leak can increase your water bill? Ask about the BFP whole house plumbing inspection!

Benjamin Franklin
THE PUNCTUAL PLUMBER

CALL TODAY for your FREE Whole House Inspection!

972-865-6713

LIC# M-12561, E.A. RICHARDSON, JR.

FREE TRIP CHARGE WITH ANY REPAIR $79 VALUE

One discount per visit. Must be presented at time of service. Not to be combined with any other offer. Certain restrictions apply. Expires 9/30/2015

Benjamin Franklin
THE PUNCTUAL PLUMBER

$50 OFF ANY PLUMBING REPAIR

One discount per visit. Must be presented at time of service. Not to be combined with any other offer. Certain restrictions apply. Expires 9/30/2015

Benjamin Franklin
THE PUNCTUAL PLUMBER