Wiggling off some steam at the end of story time at Smith Library are Emma Staab, Cora Ransom, Audrey Jones and Nathan Villaruel.

Wiggly fun

Kids showed up in their pajamas at Wylie's Smith Library for a special "Good-night" themed story time Feb. 18. Books read by children's services librarian Debbie Breithaupt to the 3-to-5-year-olds included Goodnight Gorilla, The Little Mice are Creeping and Let's Sing a Lullaby with the Brave Cowboy. At the conclusion of the stories, kids were invited to get up and dance it out.

Cora Ransom, right, age 3, tells her friend Emma Staab, 4, that there's no telling what animals will do when night falls at the zoo. The girls attended the special "Goodnight"-themed story time at Smith Library Feb. 18.
