

Small Business Center (SBC)
Smith Public Library
Approved by the Library Board, December 10, 2018

Goal: empowering people, strengthening community, and serving as a proactive contributor to a vital Wylie economy.

The Small Business Center (SBC) room is available free for individuals and groups up to 8 people working on business, career and workforce development.

What's in the SBC?

Media Table provides interactive group viewing and participation in distance learning or other presentation applications.

Whiteboard

To use the SBC:

Applicant must have a library card

Application is approved by the Library Director or designee

24 hours-notice required

Time slots for up to 2 hours per day

All group members must be 18 and up

The SBC may be used for the following:

Group training

Rehearse a presentation

Conference calls

Job interviews

This SBC is not for:

Tutoring

Sales calls

Solicitation of goods/services

General Policy:

All Applicants must check-in and check-out at the Help Desk in the Adult Services Department. A staff member is required to unlock the SBC at the beginning of the meeting and lock it after the meeting. Applicants are not permitted to enter an unlocked meeting room without first notifying a staff member. Commercial use of any kind is prohibited. Direct and indirect solicitation of goods or services and collection of fees for any purpose, including fundraising, goods, services or admission is prohibited.
